Stand Seen As UN Calls For Action

Israel Won't Quit Gaza Strip Unless Guarantees Given

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Rival Israeli-Egyptian positions on a Middle East settlement hardened today as the midnight deadline neared for Israel's troop withdrawal from Egypt and the Gaza Strip.

Israel again told the U.N. it would not quit the Mediterranean coastal strip and the area controlling the Gulf of Aqaba without concrete guarantees of protection.

That continuing stand was seen in Cairo as an urgent sign the U.N. must act swiftly to avert another violent explosion in the Middle East. Egypt and the other nations of the Asian-African bloc expected to demand that the U.N. impose economic penalties on Israel to force withdrawal from the two areas on the Egyptian side of the 1949 armistice line.

The 30-nation General Assembly set the midnight deadline for a report from Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld on Israel's response to the U.N. demand.

Hammarskjöld was not expected to announce his findings until tomorrow, but Israel's reiteration of its stand seemed to make obvious what he could report.

The latest Israeli statement, delivered to Hammarskjöld in a seven-page memorandum, apparently set the stage for another major Middle East debate in the Assembly starting Monday. Diplomats said it would deal not only with Israeli troop movements but also would go into the whole future of the U.N. Emergency Force in Egypt.

State Officials Reject Pentagon Plan for Guard

WASHINGTON (AP) — National Guard chiefs of nearly all the states reject the Pentagon plan to require six months training for all new guard enlistees starting April 1.

They want youths under the age of 18½ years—which is the draft minimum—let off with an 11 weeks course that would fit into a school vacation.

A spokesman said the vote was unanimous yesterday at a meeting here attended by adjutants general and other National Guard general officers from 47 states and territories.

BODIES FOUND IN DITCH—The bodies of Barbara Grimes, 15, left, and her sister, Patricia, 13, were found in a ditch in Chicago three and one half weeks after their disappearance. The bodies were nude and bore wound marks. The girls apparently had been dead about two weeks. (NEA Telephone)

Dishwasher Involved—Restaurant Owner Provides New Lead

CHICAGO (AP)—Police, confounded by the mystery killing of two teen-agers, checked into a restaurant owner's report today that she had seen the girls with one of her dishwashers.

Mrs. Minnie Duros, the operator of a restaurant, said she knew the man only as "Benny" and that she had seen him with Barbara Grimes, 15, and her sister, Patricia, 13, about three weeks ago.

Court Rules On K. C. Star Conviction

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Eighth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals has upheld the conviction of the Kansas City Star on charges of monopolizing dissemination of news and advertising in the Kansas City area.

The Star announced it will appeal to the Supreme Court.

The Star was convicted in District Court two years ago on two counts of engaging in monopolistic practices in interstate trade and was fined $5,000. Emil A. Sees, its advertising manager, was convicted on one count of attempted monopolization and acquitted on another count. He was fined $2,500. The appeals court also affirmed his conviction.

"Publishers of newspapers must answer for their action as well as anyone else," the appellate court said in its opinion yesterday.

"A monopolistic press could attain in tremendous measure the evils sought to be prevented by the Sherman Anti-Trust Act."

The opinion said "The freedom to print news and express opinions is not tantamount to having freedom to monopolize."

Written by Judge Charles J. Vogel, the opinion was concurred in by Archibald K. Gardner, chief judge of the Court of Appeals, and by Judge Joseph Woodrugh.

The Star's president and general manager, Roy A. Roberts, originally was a defendant but the case against him was dismissed three days before it went to trial.

The newspaper and Sees were accused in the indictment of threatening to refuse to publish advertisements when the advertiser proposed also to use other media or had purchased larger space in another medium.

The Star issued this statement in Kansas City: "For more than three-quarters of a century our business practices have been an open book. They still are. We believe these practices conform to good morals and to the law which of course any newspaper must abide by, the same as any individual citizen."

They disappeared from home Dec. 28.

The girls' nude bodies were found along a roadway Tuesday. A five-hour examination of the bodies yesterday failed to yield the cause of their deaths.

Mrs. Duros told newsmen that Sheriff Joseph Lohman appeared at her place last night with Benny. She identified him as the man with whom she had seen the girls, she said, and Lohman drove off.

Lt. John Kogger of the Chicago police tied the woman's information to an angle he was working on. Kogger said a Negro taxi driver told him he had seen the girls in the restaurant and placed the date at Jan. 6.

The cabman is Reno Voldis Echols, 27, who said he took his information to police after learning the girls were dead. Mrs. Duros said she did not come forward with her information earlier, Kogger related, because there had been so many false sightings of the girls reported up to then.

The lieutenant said Echols told him the girls were with a man when he saw them. The younger, Patricia, appeared sick as if from liquor or narcotics.

In their long, minute examination pathologists could not estimate the date of the girls' deaths.

Idaho, Arizona Girls Winners Of Wool Contest

A 17-year-old high school girl and a 20-year-old University of Arizona student have won grand prizes in the finals of the tenth annual "Make It Yourself With Wool" home-sewing contest. They were named Wednesday night from a field of 34 finalists after modeling their own fashions in the National Fashion Revue, which climaxed the year-long event.

The new national sewing champions are Sharon Schelline of Donnelly, Ida., in the contest's junior division, and Helen Gee, 20, of Tucson, in the senior division.

The young women will receive a two-week, all-expense-paid trip to Europe, via Pan American World Airways, and will enjoy a stay in New York and intensive tours of London, Paris and Rome as guests of the Wool Bureau and Pendleton Woolen Mills.

Representing Missouri in the national contest was a Sedalia girl, Miss Mary Lou Mitchell, 21, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, 1101 West 16th.

The 34 finalists traveled to Las Vegas as guests of the F. W. Woolworth Company. Their five-day stay includes attendance at special dinners and luncheons; visits to selected entertainment centers, and sight-seeing tours of Hoover Dam, Lake Mead and other scenic wonders of Southern Nevada.

The annual contest is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the National Wool Growers Association and the Wool Bureau.

House Tries Husbands Aid; Senate Studies Water Policy

Would Form Joint Group For Inquiry

Missouri Now Has No Statutory Laws On Water Rights

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — A new plan to develop some kind of a state water policy was proposed in the Missouri Senate today.

Sens. George A. Spencer of Columbia and Jack C. Jones of Carrollton, both Democrats, introduced a resolution calling for a joint committee of five senators and five representatives to tackle the problem.

The committee would study both water resources and water rights to the end that "a broad, long range program and water policy may be formulated for this state."

Missouri has no statutory law on water rights now. Use of water is governed by the old common law doctrine of riparian rights. That means you can take as much water from the stream flowing through your land as you want—so long as you don't interfere with the equal right of your neighbor downstream.

The joint committee proposed today would have the power to set up an advisory citizens group to assist it, and use the facilities of the legislative research staff, the state geologist, resources and development division and other state agencies.

Committee members would be paid their actual expenses and they would report their recommendations to the Legislature.

Jones attempted to set up a similar committee last session but limited the membership to senators. Later an opinion by Atty. Gen. John M. Dalton held that only joint committees approved by both houses could operate when the Legislature is not in session.

A suit to test the validity of Dalton's opinion was filed by Jones in the state Supreme Court and is pending there now.

Before quitting until next Tuesday, the Senate received bills to require county surveyors and city engineers to be registered engineers.

Recommended by the Education Committee for passage was a bill requiring children to attend school until the age of 16—two years more than under the present law.

Sedalia Schools Get U. S. Funds

The Sedalia public school district will receive $14,113 in federal funds for current operating and maintenance expenses within the next week, the Office of Education has announced.

A total of $17,641.80 in federal aid has been tentatively approved for fiscal 1957; the remainder will be sent as needed.

The funds are granted under the federal program which allows aid to schools overcrowded because of government installations, in this case Whiteman Air Force Base.

Ready For House Debate—

Committee Okay On Patrol Increase

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The State Highway Patrol won overwhelming committee approval of a bill to increase patrol personnel from 355 uniformed men to 600 last night and to pay all ranks more money.

The bill now is ready for House debate, which probably will come next week.

The patrol, legislative sponsors and spokesmen of several groups urged the bill's enactment to help cut down on highway accidents. No one spoke against it.

The voting approving it was 39-1, with Rep. Dewey L. Hankins (R) of Barry County the sole dissenter.

Besides increasing patrol strength it would raise the patrol

$9,000 a year to $11,000 and provide these other annual salaries for lesser ranks:

Lieutenant colonel $7,500, majors $6,900, captains $6,300, lieutenants $5,700, sergeants $5,100 and troopers $4,500. It would also give all ranks $30 a month, instead of $15 for new uniforms and their upkeep.

Col. Hugh H. Waggoner, patrol superintendent, estimated the bill would boost the cost of patrol operations by $3,181,743 for the coming two fiscal years, making the total cost for the period $12,690,743.

But he said it should help reduce sharply the economic loss from highway accidents, which estimated came to $100 million last year.

Warrensburg Asked to Buy Water Firm

A motion that the Warrensburg-Pertle Springs Water Co. be notified that the city is considering exercising the option to buy the company's franchise was approved at a meeting of the city council Tuesday night.

The option comes up every five years as the franchise is renewed, subject to notification of the company 90 days prior to the renewal date of the franchise. The council instructed Mayor A. G. Taubert to notify the company of the council's intention.

In other actions the council: 1. Heard a report of a special committee recommending that a proposed vote for bonds to finance a municipal swimming pool be placed on the ballot at the next city election.

2. Passed a resolution setting a new policy of the city for the construction of street surfacing in the city—to be partly paid for by property owners abutting on the proposed improved streets according to requirements of state statutes.

The proposed purchase of the water company is the second in two years. On June 15, 1955, a proposal for the city to issue $550,000 in general revenue bonds for the purchase of the water company (Please turn to page 6, column 7)

Would Stop Alimony If She Remarries

House Adjourns Till Tuesday; Snow Interrupts Session

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Missouri's House passed its first bill of the 1957 session today—a bill to give some former husbands relief.

Under present laws, a wife may divorce her husband and win an alimony order in Circuit Court, then may wed again and still claim legally alimony from her first husband.

Under the bill passed today it would mean the alimony automatically ceases when she marries the second time.

The bill now goes to the Senate. During a brief session cut short by a snowstorm, the House also advanced two bills and received four new ones.

Then the House adjourned until next Tuesday as members bundled up and started home over roads becoming slick from the new snow.

Advanced was a bill to set up a fiscal officer in the Legislative Research Committee so legislators will have information on the financial needs of the state government when they convene, instead of just the monetary requests of the various state departments and institutions.

Also advanced was a bill, part of a program for education and training of handicapped children, which would require county school superintendents to make a census of those youngsters who are not physically or mentally able to attend regular school.

Every time a bill came up that appeared likely to start an argument, the sponsors put it back on the calendar as the attendance dwindled.

New bills were introduced to: Let the township assessor sit on the county board of equalization in the 23 counties having township organization. Each township assessor would be a member of the board only when the assessments of his township were being reviewed.

Put a top on a windshield wiper on those little motor cars that ply the railroads as track workers make repairs. It has been regularly introduced and just as regularly defeated.

Give the Jackson County coroner the right to perform autopsies on the bodies of persons believed to have met death under suspicious circumstances. He would not have to get the consent of relatives of the dead person before performing the autopsy.

Winter Strikes Another Blow At Missouri

Heavy snow north with freezing rain mixed with snow south and east-central this afternoon, and snow tonight and Friday with freezing rain, changing to snow in the southeast tonight is the forecast.

The snow is expected to accumulate to 4 inches or more in the north portions.

Hennings Move To Limit Study Gets Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a new flareup over civil rights legislation, Senator Ervin (Democrat-NC) assailed as "inexcusable" a proposed deadline for action by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.), author of the proposal, said in a separate interview that his aim was to prevent a repetition of what he called the "fillbuster in committee" that took place last year.

The committee held lengthy hearings last year on civil rights measures, including the Eisenhower administration's program which the House approved, but it took no action.

When the committee met yesterday to organize for the present Congress, Hennings urged that it fix a deadline next month for concluding its hearings and voting on civil rights bills.

His proposed motion called for completion of the hearings prior to Feb. 18 and a vote within a week thereafter.

Ervin protested later that this "would be like a judge starting to try a case on Monday and saying that at 2:15 p.m. tomorrow, we are going to submit it to the jury regardless of whether the arguments are in."

He said that civil rights bills require "considerable study" and that "to my mind it is inexcusable to put a time limit on anything of such major importance to the country."

Hennings said the committee members were "all aware of the various points of view on these issues" and that no more hearings were necessary. He said, however, that he would agree to limited hearings if a time were fixed for a showdown vote.

Ambulance Siren Costs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If you're conscious and you hear the siren in a private ambulance you'll know the trip to the hospital is going to cost you 50 cents more.

City officials so decreed in adjusting upward the rates for private ambulance service—from $10 to $12 minimum, and from $2 to $2.50 for sounding the siren.

If it's dark you're stuck again. Extra fees for service after 5 p.m.

went from $2 to $2.50. A night ride—with siren—will cost a minimum of $17.

BIG NEWS
for you

Greatest thing that ever happened to the Century

The fabulous new Buick Century Caballero

YOU'VE SEEN many improvements in wagons these past 5 years. But, to use a vivid expression, "You ain't seen nothing yet!"

For now comes a new kind of wagon called the Caballero.

It's the lowest and the sleekest wagon you ever saw—and the most practical wagon ever built by Buick.

You get up to 8½ feet of level deck for "long" freight—wider-opening rear gates top and bottom for easier loading—a panoramic rear window for safer parking. Even your rear-seat passengers get a view unmarred by center posts.

But beyond all that, this one's a '57 Buick Century through and through.

So you ride with buoyant new roadability—from a new chassis that "nests" the body to a record low center of gravity.

You guide with a new and surer handling, stop on the level even when you have to brake hard, travel with the satisfying security of Buick brawn, solidity, rock-firm steadiness.

Above all, you command with a new ginger here—with a quicker and surer power response that stems from an all-new 364-cubic-inch V8 engine with 10 to 1 compression.

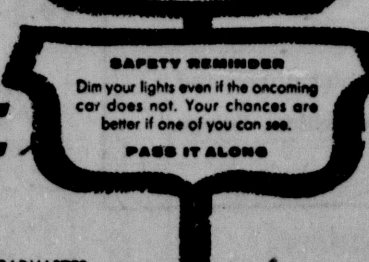

And sparking this great power is a new advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that gives you such instant full-torque obedience in "Drive"—it practically eliminates your need for "Low."

The stunning new Caballero—the '57 Buick Century Estate Wagon illustrated here—can be yours at a price surprisingly easy to take.

Or you can have a similar body style in Buick's even lower-priced SPECIAL Series. Drop in and see us—today.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, N.M. (AP)—A specialist in fungi says a careful watch is necessary to keep such plant growths off rockets in tropical climates.

He says such growths could interfere with tracking rockets in flight and also that the missiles might veer off course.

DERBY, England (AP)—William M. Muir, 42, shook hands with the coroner who recorded his death under the wheels of a train 23 months ago.

Said Coroner Frank Barnett: "From what I have learned since then, I am sure this is a case of mistaken identity." ## Concedes Clue Was Not Found By a Detective

NEW YORK (AP) — Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy has conceded that it was an employee of the Consolidated Edison Co.—not one of his detectives—who turned up the documents that led to the arrest of George Metesky as the Mad Bomber.

Kennedy also concedes that police did not personally examine the documents until Monday morning, although they were notified Friday afternoon of the contents of the discovery.

Metesky, 53, was arrested Monday night at his Waterbury, Conn. home by New York and Waterbury police.

Consolidated Edison, the metropolitan area's giant electric and gas utility, credited Miss Alice G. Kelly, a 25-year employee, with finding the file of letters that led to the Bomber's arrest.

Metesky, a disgruntled former employee of Consolidated Edison, had written letters to the company complaining that he had not received sufficient compensation for an alleged incapacitating on-the-job injury he claimed to have received in 1931.

The question of who found the vital clue will have direct bearing on disposition of the $26,000 reward offered in the case.

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks
without gag, bloot or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H stimulate it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions. It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Ban Johnson Holds Banquet Here Tonight

The Central Missouri Ban Johnson Baseball League's annual winter banquet will be held this evening at the Pacific Cafe.

The Sedalia Bee Jays, sponsor of this year's banquet, have arranged for four speakers for the evening. Heading the list will be Walker Cooper, former major league catcher and now a St. Louis Cardinal coach, while Joe Bowman, Pat Monahan and John Schulte will be the other three speakers. All are connected with major league clubs as scouts.

At this dinner meeting the Bee Jays will be awarded the 1956 championship trophy by League President Vic Meinert, Brookfield, and the Marshall Blue Jays will receive the 1956 Sportsmanship trophy.

A short business meeting will be conducted prior to the dinner and it is expected that Moberly's and Brookfield's decisions on whether or not they are to again become members of the league will be made known.

Cincinnati second baseman Johnny Temple was married at home plate in 1950 while playing for Columbia, S.C. His bride is Becky Sheely.

Eddie Arcaro, Earl Sando and the late George Woolf were the first three jockeys placed in Pinocchio's Hall of Fame.

The New York Football Giants had 26 rookies in their pre-season training camp at Burlington, Vt.

Atlas-Hawk Team Opposes Dobie-Koenig

A new roughing team partnership has been formed within the past two weeks with unconquered Mighty Atlas, the Hollywood strong man, joining forces with Rip Hawk, the villainous blond mat terrorist from Toledo.

Atlas and Hawk announced a week ago they're ready to take on all comers.

When news hit Kansas City of the open offer issued by Atlas and Hawk, Gentleman Jim Dobie quickly notified Sedalia Matchmaker Gust Karras that "I'm taking those fellows up on their boast." Karras welcomed Dobie's announcement and has contracted the team match to headline next Tuesday night's three-bout card in the Sedalia Armory.

Dobie spent two days before finally choosing Hungarian-born Johann Koenig as his partner. Koenig made a big hit with the Sedalia fans during his mat debut a week ago. The muscular Hungarian easily outclassed rougher Blackjack Dillon.

"Koenig is a terrific wrestler and the type of man I like to have on any team in which I'm competing," Dobie remarked. "Johann welcomed the chance to tackle Atlas and Hawk at the same time."

Atlas hasn't lost an individual match since his arrival in the Middle West in mid-October. He has ran his victory string to a fabulous 52 matches. Hawk's rowdy style apparently caught the fancy of the Hollywood strong man and their combined ruggedness will make them a tough combination to pin down.

Dobie and Koenig, while both clean-cut wrestlers, are clever offensive mat strategists and their varied style of wrestling when combined should give them excellent team balance which is necessary when facing a roughhousing outfit.

Variety for next Tuesday's card will be provided by two of the sport's leading midget mat wizards. Cowboy Bradley, a pint-sized Texan, will collide with Tiny Roe, a little toughie from London, in the clash between the mighty mites which takes the semi-windup spotlight.

The midgets have always remained popular pleasers here. Their unpredictable ring antics both maze and amuse the fans. There's no set pattern for a midget match—anything can happen when those little speedsters step through the ropes.

The mites range between 40 and 48 inches in height and weigh around 80 pounds. But what they lack in size they amply make up for in spectacular ring maneuvers. They can execute every known hold in the pro sport with the proficiency of the heavyweights.

Cowboy Bradley and Tiny Roe are rated among the greatest in the midget class today and their clash here is certain to develop into a real, fast-paced thriller.

An individual skirmish between Atlas and Koenig will open the program next Tuesday night at 8:15. The sponsoring American Legion Post has placed tickets on advance sale at the Pacific Cafe and Midway Shoe Repair shop.

Hubbard Teams Beat Houstonia Wednesday

Hubbard High School "A" and "B" basketball teams defeated the Houstonia teams Wednesday night at Houstonia. Hubbard's "A" team whipped Houstonia 72-58 and the "B" team won 62-15. High point men for Hubbard in the "A" game were W. Jones, 18, E. McFeters, 11, and Simms, 10, with high point men in the "B" game being E. Johnson, 13, and Christian and B. Jones, 12 points each. High point men for Houstonia were Carver, 7 points in the "B" game, and Walker, 28 points in the "A" game. Hubbard will play against LaMonte on the home court Friday night, with the "B" game beginning at 7:15.

MOST VALUABLE—President Maurice Podoloff presents the President's Trophy to Bob Pettit. The award goes annually to the combatant elected by the players in a poll conducted by NEA Service as the outstanding player in the National Basketball Association, and Pettit was so adjudged throughout the season of 1955-56. Behind the St. Louis Hawk forward is his mother, Mrs. Robert Lee Pettit. Murray Olderman, NEA cartoonist-sports writer, is on the right. It was his idea.

Windsor Splits Two Cage Games With LaMonte

LaMonte's Freshmen moved gracefully past Windsor's ninth grade aggregation in a cage game, 39-27, Wednesday evening, but suffered a reversal in an accompanying meeting of seventh and eighth graders which Windsor won 39-28. The twin bill was played at LaMonte.

Thompson led the hosts in the Freshmen game with 12 points, followed by Whitaker and Tullis who tossed in 11 and 10 tallies, respectively, for Windsor.

In the grade school contest, Craig of Windsor and Curtis of LaMonte dumped in 11 apiece.

Return games will be played at Windsor Feb. 6.

Officials were Curtis and Finke.

Lightweight Wins 20th Straight Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Boxing Assn. had better start making a spot in its rankings for lightweight Carlos Ortiz, a nifty combination puncher who remained unbeaten last night in gaining his 20th straight victory.

The 20-year-old New York fighter won a unanimous decision over Chicago's Bobby Rogers in Chicago Stadium.

Ortiz did his job skillfully against a youth his own age who showed promise with a good right hand but didn't use it often enough. He landed only about five solid rights during the 10 rounds, all of which Ortiz took with nothing more than a blink.

Ortiz's next opponent probably will be Larry Boardman, the NBA's third ranking lightweight contender from Marlboro, Mass.

Don Larsen's Perfect Game Was Costly

The Associated Press
The perfect game Don Larsen pitched in last fall's World Series is going to cost the New York Yankees more money than the world champions have offered their glamor pitchers.

While most of the Yankees have signed 1957 contracts without any noticeable kicks, the club's two showpieces—Larsen and Mickey Mantle—are making no bones about wanting more money.

Larsen, who posted a 11-5 regular season, said from his San Diego, Calif., home that he had returned his contract and wants $27,500.

He declined to say how much he received last year or how much the Yankees offered this time. It's a safe guess the $27,500 is close to twice the value of his 1956 contract. Unofficially it was believed the Yanks offered him $15,000 this year.

"If they don't do better than the offer they sent me," Larsen said, "I may end up tending bar."

Mantle is waiting for a talk with Yankee General Manager George Weiss, probably within 10 days. Mickey, honored in Milwaukee last night as the Associated Press Male Athlete of 1956, has indicated he wants at least double the salary he received last year when he won baseball's triple crown: hitting (.353), runs batted in (130) and home runs (52). He is believed to have received around $35,000 last year.

The Yankees did sign two more players yesterday, however, when shortstops Billy Hunter and Jerry Lumpe sent in their contracts.

Other clubs also continued to line up their players without too much trouble.

The Brooklyn Dodgers ran their list of satisfied players to 33, with seven to go, with the signing of three rookies—first baseman Jim Gentile, infielder Jasper Spears and all-around Mike Napoli.

Bob Cerv, a former Yankee signed his Kansas City Athletics contract. Right-handers Tom Brewer and Frank Sullivan, ace of the Boston pitching staff, signed up quickly after talking with Red Sox General Manager Joe Cronin.

Jim Hearn, also a right-hand pitcher, agreed to Philadelphia Phillies' terms. And St. Louis reduced its list of unsigned Cardinals to six with the signing of pitchers Don Liddle and Lloyd Merritt and first baseman Glenn Nelson.

That game has Kemper Military at Kansas City, Kan., with the host Blue Devils seeking to improve their overall 4-7 won-loss record. The Yellowjackets, at 0-4, are after their first victory.

The other games pit Wentworth against Park College and Moberly against Highland in non-conference outings.

Meanwhile, the defending champion Joplin Lions are well on their way as repeaters with three decisions without a loss in conference play.

The standings:

	W	L	Pct.
Joplin	3	0	1.000
Highland	3	1	.750
Fort Scott	2	2	.500
Kansas City	1	3	.250
Wentworth	0	2	.000
Kemper	0	1	.000

Elmer Singleton, who will get a chance to pitch for the Chicago Cubs next spring, won 18 games for Seattle in 1956. He lost 8.

Mantle, McCormick Get Athlete Awards

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Two great, but humble athletes—Mickey Mantle and Mrs. Pat McCormick—last night received silver trophies signifying their eminence in sports.

The baseball star and the queen of divers were honored for having been selected the male and female athletes of 1956 in the annual Associated Press poll.

A crowd of 1,000, including Air Force Gen. Emmett (Rosie) O'Donnell, attended the Fraternal Order of Eagles-Frederick C. Miller Awards Dinner. The trophies honored the memory of Miller, a local sportsman.

'Red' McIntyre, Two Others Hurt In Auto Mishap

William "Red" McIntyre, 29, formerly of Ottumwa, now of Atlanta, Ga., his wife and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Don McIntyre, were severely injured Saturday in a two-car accident near Evansville, Ill. The driver of the other car, Howard E. Ashby, 37, Belleville, was killed.

"Red", well-known in Sedalia as one of the outstanding wrestlers to appear on cards of the Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, suffered a fractured arm. His wife suffered a severe lip injury.

Mrs. Don McIntyre, suffered possible internal injuries, abrasions and bruises.

They were enroute to St. Louis from Atlanta to be with Mrs. Bill McIntyre's father, Charley Hopkins, who recently underwent major surgery at the Veterans Hospital in St. Louis and whose condition is critical.

Mrs. Hopkins and other children are in St. Louis with their husband and father. According to information received here, McIntyre was driving a new Cadillac convertible and the two automobiles collided head-on at a bridge approach on Illinois State Highway 3, about a mile north of Evansville, Ill.

Ashby was a foundry worker and the father of five children ranging from two to 15 years old.

Hank Aaron, the National League's leading hitter with Milwaukee, led Jacksonville and the Sally League in hitting with .362 in 1953.

Jim Hearn, also a right-hand pitcher, agreed to Philadelphia Phillies' terms. And St. Louis reduced its list of unsigned Cardinals to six with the signing of pitchers Don Liddle and Lloyd Merritt and first baseman Glenn Nelson.

That game has Kemper Military at Kansas City, Kan., with the host Blue Devils seeking to improve their overall 4-7 won-loss record. The Yellowjackets, at 0-4, are after their first victory.

The other games pit Wentworth against Park College and Moberly against Highland in non-conference outings.

Elmer Singleton, who will get a chance to pitch for the Chicago Cubs next spring, won 18 games for Seattle in 1956. He lost 8.

Lions See Movie On Sports of '55 At Regular Meet

The Sedalia Lions saw some of the top sports events of 1955 in a motion picture which was shown at the regular weekly noonday meeting Wednesday. The picture sponsored by Miller's High Life brought out the top stars in baseball, professional football, golf, skiing, and other sports.

The picture was obtained by the Central Distributing Co., and shown by Norman Pitcairn, who was a guest at the meeting of Milton R. Skinner.

The semi-annual audit of the club was read and approved.

A report was given on the progress of the Lions Annual Invitational Basketball Tournament to be held February 5-9.

Vice-President A. B. Warren presided over the meeting in the absence of President Bob Cain, who is attending a convention in Chicago.

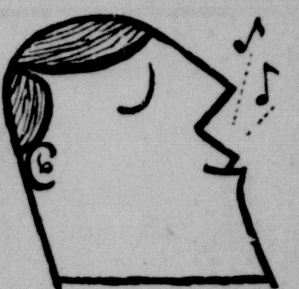

The next meeting will be in the form of a family party Wednesday night, Jan. 30, at the Bothwell Hotel. The party will be strictly for the members and their immediate family.

Charlie Ane, Detroit Lion offensive center, learned to kick barefooted in his native Hawaii.

First Visit of Year to Extension Club

Sleet and snow did not keep members of the Dresden Homemakers Extension Club home Tuesday, January 22. I enjoyed meeting with this group, this was my first visit this year.

This Club has a very fine community project this year as they are giving their community hall a "face lifting". The women are furnishing the money for the needed materials. The men in the community are furnishing the labor. Their pay being a good home cooked meal at the noon hour.

This is a fine project and one which will help not only the Extension Club but also their 4-H Club.

An Egg a Day

Planning to serve eggs often in menus is a wise investment in family health.

Eggs furnish high quality protein as well as essential vitamins and minerals. The protein of egg, like the protein of milk, meat and fish, supplies all the amino acids essential for building and repairing body tissue. Two large eggs provide about the same amount of protein as an average serving of meat and, at present prices, they are a low cost alternate.

Cooking Makes The Difference

Moderate to low temperature cooking is important in cooking eggs so that they retain their flavor, tenderness and attractiveness. High temperature and over-cooking toughen eggs. In dishes thickened with eggs, such as custards and sauces, high temperature and over-cooking cause curdling or watering. If the yolks are to be separated from whites or the eggs are to be beaten — remove eggs from the refrigerator ahead of time and bring to room temperature for best results.

In combining hot moistures and eggs as in custards, cream fillings, souffles, pour the hot mixture slowly into the beaten egg stirring or beating constantly.

Serve eggs often — but, serve them right. Use as little heat as possible when cooking eggs.

Children Seldom Complain If Shoes Don't Fit

Here's a special for Mom's with growing families.

Did you realize that children seldom complain when their shoes don't fit? Here's the reason why. Because a child's foot has such a soft structure, it will allow itself to be pushed out of shape to conform with the shape of the shoe. And during this process the child feels no pain.

Only in adult life after his bones have already hardened does the misery and discomfort start. Because your child probably won't complain, you should watch for signs that his shoes are outgrown or fit improperly.

If pink spots show on your child's toes immediately after he takes off his shoes and socks, his shoes may be too short. You might run your fingers around the inside of the toe of his shoe. If his toe nails have made creases in the lining, this is another sign that his shoes are too short.

Red spots on the foot indicate that the shoes may be too tight or narrow or the shoe may not be smooth inside. Blisters and callouses indicate poorly-fitting shoes as well as your child's unwillingness to walk or play or run.

If your child has the habit of taking off his shoes as soon as he comes into the house, this is a good sign that you need to check his shoe fit.

Easy-Care Clothing

Look for those garments that are easy-to-care-for. You will find them in fabrics of synthetic fibers, and in easy-care features produced in the special weave of the fabric.

First, let's consider fabrics of synthetic fibers. These include nylon, orlon, dacron, and acrilan, as well as blends of these fibers with natural fibers such as cotton and wool. Ease-of-care of this type fabric is a strong point and you will find garments made of these fibers for every member of the family.

When you select garments made of blends of synthetic and natural fibers, you want a fabric that is at least 50 per cent or more synthetic fiber in order to have easy-care properties of the synthetic.

Your best guide in buying is the label. Look for fiber content, colorfastness, shrinkage control, and complete instructions for care of the garment.

With so much emphasis on synthetics, there is a tendency to overlook the natural fiber fabrics, particularly cotton. Many are wrinkle resistant and easy-to-care-for because of the weave, or a chemical or resin finish.

These easy-care cottons have advantages over synthetic fabrics since they generally require no special washing care, and with a little care in the method of drying, you can cut down considerably on the ironing load. They absorb moisture and are often more comfortable to wear than the synthetic fabrics.

You are familiar with many of these easy-care cottons — terry cloth, corduroy, seersucker, plisse, and those with resin finishes such as embossed or disciplined.

Don't forget the cotton knits. They have always been one of our stand-by, no-iron fabrics. Many of them are now stabilized and will not shrink or lose their shape.

Look for clothing that is easy to care for but remember, don't throw your iron away. Most of the fabrics look better with a little pressing or ironing.

Teacher Wins Record Sum On TV Quiz

By CHARLES MERCER Doren is a tall, 30-year-old, ex-New YORK (N)—Charles Van Doren, an extraordinarily intelligent English instructor at Columbia University who looks somewhat like Joseph Cotten in his younger days and who does not own a television set. He plans to buy one, however. It will be an appropriate gesture, for he has recently come into a position to afford one and he also has recently made television history of a kind.

This week he ran his television quiz show earnings to $104,500 after nine arduous weeks of answering an unlimited variety of questions on the best of this season's new TV quiz programs, Twenty-One (NBC-TV, Mondays). The previous TV giveaway record was $100,000, won by five persons on The Big Surprise.

I had lunch the other day with Van Doren before he went on the program. "If I were a betting man," he said in answer to a question, "I'd bet I won't quit tonight but will go on."

Well, he certainly is a betting man. He played a lot of poker in the Air Force in World War II and he must be a very good player. I'm a betting man too, and I'll bet that he doesn't quit next week. I'll bet he goes up several thousand more before he quits.

My bet is based on the fact that Van Doren has strong nerves and self-confidence — which are quite different from egotism. Most quiz contestants eventually begin to act like hams. Van Doren does not.

He says he hasn't the vaguest idea what his IQ is. When people try to discover the sources of his intelligence, he gives the credit to his father, Mark Van Doren, the writer and teacher, and his mother, a former newspaper woman.

"In my family we were always in the habit of looking things up when we didn't know the answer," he said. "Just the other night when I was up in Connecticut having dinner with my parents, we all had different ideas on the name of the malarial-bearing mosquito. We looked it up. It's a mosquito of the genus Anopheles."

No matter how much he makes on Twenty-One, Van Doren plans to continue teaching. After buying a car and a TV set he plans to use the rest as a backlog which will enable him to write fiction without having to do some of the hack writing necessary to piece out an instructor's salary. He mutters something about buying a house some day. A house requires a wife, of course, and probably Van Doren has a girl in mind. But he absolutely declines to identify her.

"Experience is the best teacher"

Above is Mr. Francis J. Harrison (Right) from Lamonte, Missouri discussing the hog market with Jim Leathers, KMBC-KFRM Reporter at the Kansas City Stockyards. Mr. Harrison sold 18 head of Duroc hogs on the Kansas City Livestock Market Monday, January 21, he made the following statement about marketing at Kansas City:

"We sell all our hogs here at the central Kansas City Market. We have sold other ways but learned the hard way that it doesn't pay. We come to the same good commission firm with all our hogs and get very good service. We have never had hogs mixed up at the Kansas City Stockyards."

Francis J. Harrison farms 580 acres in partnership with his father, D. J. Harrison, near Lamonte in Pettis County, Missouri. The Harrisons market from 300 to 400 head of hogs a year and also some cattle. They have found that it pay to ship to the Kansas City Livestock Market where they always get good service and prices are set by competition.

The Elegant Look Extends To Youngest of '57 Belles

AP Newsfeatures Party dresses are as important as orange juice and vitamins to a point thoughtful mothers do not overlook. This year the choice is so varied that any pint-size glamor girl should be able to find her dream dress with no difficulty. New styles and fabrics also make life easy for Mom. Some of the most elaborate concoctions of organdy, frills and lace turn out to be the miracle-fabric kind that can be dunked in the wash-bowl, hung on a hanger and worn without ironing, as crisp and fresh as new, with every ruffle and pleat in place. Velvet, the all-time favorite for little girls' party dresses, also does new tricks this season, with finishes giving resistance to spot, oil and wrinkles. For all those important parties that follow close on the heels of the New Year—Valentine parties, Washington's Birthday parties—every small social butterfly needs a velvet dress with a lacy collar. It's tradition.

New Kitchen Trends Give Built-in Look To Appliances and Kitchen Cabinets

"Dream Kitchen" has space-saving table which folds out of wall cupboard for mealtime use, revealing shelves for dishes. Range (background) features French-type doors and a back panel of instruments which controls all cooking operations.

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer
DAYTON, O. — (NEA) — New trends in kitchen planning embrace the sleek, custom-made look of built-in styling but allow, also, for practical consideration of space and budget. Six "idea" kitchens previewed here are the result of collaboration among appliance and kitchen cabinet manufacturers to point up the versatility of 1957 equipment.

Although the kitchens vary in size and appointments, there are similar basic trends. I noted in particular the emphasis on clean, squared-up lines, flexible storage, space-saving arrangements and the clever use of color.

Free-standing appliances take on the "built-in" look, thanks to exterior design changes. Fronts are straight-lined. Corners are squared off and emphasized with chromium and stainless steel strips.

Dimensions have been altered an inch or two to square up ranges and refrigerators with standard cabinets.

New design of refrigerator and freezer doors conceals the hinges, seal and latch and permits the door to swing wide open even when a base cabinet or a wall is snugged up tight against the side.

Inside the refrigerator you'll see some changes, too. To aid midnight raiders, side lights illuminate the interior from top to bottom.

Ranges, too, are squared up for close companionship with cabinets. Some have back panels with a battery of cooking aids. Directions are clearly printed on back of the glass panel so that you can't scrub them off. An improvement, it seems to me, is the simplicity with which you can pre-set the oven timer to start dinner.

One dial is set for the hour you want to serve, another for the length of time the casseroles should cook.

One space saving kitchen used a foldaway dining table to good advantage. This swings down from a standard cabinet which also has shelf storage for dishes and an open shelf for the telephone.

Gray formica covered the table top and counters and faced the corner cupboard, which put every inch of space to use. Pink appliances sparkled against the neutral gray and brown cabinetry.

Cabinets are so well-organized that I'm sure they would make a better housekeeper of me. Wood cabinets in one kitchen have adjustable rolling shelves which can be pulled out to bring food or equipment within easy reach.

In the laundry area, a cabinet for the sewing machine has rollaway trays for sewing supplies, combination wood-and-steel cabinets in an autumnal-tinted kitchen include a full-length one with removable wire baskets for dry storage of vegetables.

In keeping with the sleek styling is the generous use of metal.

Stainless steel counter tops flank surface range units in one kitchen, sweep across a salad and beverage center in another.

Modern note, too, is the use of steel legs to boost standard cabinets off the floor for a more "open" look.

Another contemporary treatment is the use of translucent velon sliding panels instead of curtains over a kitchen sink.

For the sophisticated, a swanky, new finish for appliances is charcoal. Charcoal refrigerator and dishwasher combined with stainless steel and brilliant blue-and-charcoal cabinets make a stylish kitchen which feature a beverage-mixing center for the man of the house.

Americans Poor Businessmen When Driving

Americans are the poorest businessmen in the world when it comes to driving an automobile, according to Highway Patrol Superintendent Col. Hugh H. Waggoner.

According to Waggoner, "Americans have the reputation of being among the shrewdest business people in the world. They are experts in the field of manpower conservation and they know how to depreciate a piece of machinery to the nth degree. Yet when they get behind the wheel of an automobile they throw economy out the window as they waste gasoline, rubber and oil racing toward accidents which will render their cars and possibly their lives a total loss."

He pointed out there is no reason why a man's car and his life shouldn't be considered as investments which must be protected just as business property is protected by sound, economic usage.

According to the Patrol Chief, "defensive driving" is one such protection. By following the idea of "defensive driving," the driver always operates his car in accordance with traffic regulations, and is prepared to protect himself from the errors of other drivers. Thus, the defensive driver will maintain a speed suited to driving conditions and that speed will also be the one which insures a longer life for him and his vehicle.

"Economy with human lives is what we're really after," Waggoner stated.

Elephant Has Short Vacation in Japan

NAGOYA, Japan (AP)—Hundreds chased a three-ton elephant through Nagoya streets for two hours today after the animal broke away from her keepers.

The 13-year-old elephant, Hamako, had outgrown her compound at the Hamamatsu City Zoo, 70 miles away, and was being moved into the Higashiyama Park Zoo in Nagoya.

Hamako finally was captured in the hills about a mile south of the zoo. An hour later she snapped her rope again and started on another jaunt. This time she was free only 40 minutes.

Seattle, Wash., is the nearest U.S. port to the Orient.

Mrs. John Dwyer shows how she gets the icing where she wants it, part of her formula for success in cake decorating.

Cake Decoration Requires Many Hours of Practice

CINCINNATI, Ohio —(NEA)—Those big, beautiful cakes, all covered with flowers, leaves and lovely decorations, make birthdays real events. Multitudes of women have wrestled with cake decorating equipment briefly and then given up.

But there's one resident of the suburban area of this city who has mastered the knack. Furthermore, she doesn't mind passing the information along.

"Cake decorating is just the knack of wiggling your hand and getting the icing where you want it," is the way Mrs. John Dwyer oversimplifies her hobby. Mrs. Dwyer lives on a pretty country road near Morning View, Ky., and despite all the demands of busy farm life finds time to decorate many a cake for festive occasions.

"You understand I'm not a professional at this," Mrs. Dwyer modestly claims, "but I love to do it. Years ago I worked at a cafeteria and used to make simple decorations on cookies, then I started doing a little cake decorating."

She has been a member of a homemaker's club for 17 years... that's one of the groups of women who continue their education through study guided by the U.S. Department of Agriculture Extension Service.

"As one of our study projects we chose cake decorations," she explained. "I was one of the members selected to be given the lesson (the University of Kentucky extension course) to pass on to the 25 members of our club... I gave the lessons here at my home. Although I knew a little about cake decorating, I learned a lot more from this experience."

"You can go about so far by yourself, then you need someone to show you a few of the special tricks."

Here is the recipe which Mrs. Dwyer uses:

Three and one-half cups confectioners' sugar, about; one-half teaspoon cream of tartar; three egg whites, unbeaten; one teaspoon vanilla.

Combine all ingredients in mixing bowl and beat until very smooth, about three minutes.

You have to learn to judge the stiffness of the icing. Mrs. Dwyer describes it this way: "When you touch it, it should not stick to the finger; it must stand in stiff peaks. If it's too soft, your decorations will fall over."

"You can make up this icing, and store it, covered, in the refrigerator to use as you like."

"When you want to use it, let it stand out of the refrigerator for a half hour or so and stir it up well. Then tint the portions you will need in colors with a good paste food coloring which you can buy from bakery supply houses."

"If you're really serious about learning to do cake decorating, nothing can take the place of practice," Mrs. Dwyer advises. "Keep a bowl of icing in your refrigerator—it can be kept for two or three weeks—then whenever you bake a cake, put some of it in a tube and practice making decorations—even though you don't do a complete decorating job."

"One of the most common mistakes which I have observed is that beginners don't lift the tube tip from the cake quickly enough once they've squeezed out a leaf or a design."

Mrs. Dwyer likes the metal tips which you can slip into little paper

Indian Pudding Is Yankee Favorite

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Indian Pudding is a dish we thoroughly enjoy whenever we visit New England, and tasting it there always spurs us on to preparing it at home. There are many versions of this delicious regional dessert; the following recipe produces the rich reddish-brown whey-like texture that many folks expect.

In our opinion Indian Pudding tastes best when it is offered just warm with a large scoop of vanilla ice cream melting over each spicy serving. Try this combination and see if you don't agree!

Indian Pudding
Ingredients: 4½ cups milk, ¼ cup enriched corn meal, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ cup light or dark molasses, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons sugar, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, 2 eggs (slightly beaten).

Method: Scald ¾ cups of the milk. Mix corn meal with remaining 1 cup of cold milk. Add to scalded milk, stirring constantly. Cook over low heat 10 to 15 minutes or until thickened, stirring often. Stir in butter, molasses, salt, sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg and slightly beaten eggs until blended. Pour into baking dish (one holding 7 to 8 cups is a good size). Bake in very slow (275 degrees) oven for two hours. Allow to stand at room temperature, without spooning into pudding and breaking crust, until warm. Serve with vanilla ice cream. Makes six servings.

Note: Cream, plain or whipped, may be served with the pudding instead of ice cream.

OTHER NEW ENGLAND DISHES
Red Flannel Hash—Make it of beets, potatoes and corned beef—all cooked and diced and seasoned with onion. The mixture goes into a skillet until the bottom is deliciously brown and crusty.

Kedgeree—Make it of hot cooked rice, cooked flaked fish and chopped hard-cooked eggs. Heat the three foods in butter, with or without milk or cream.

Scallops—Alternate on skewers with squares of bacon and broil. Delicious luncheon dish with a green salad, apple pie and coffee.

Succotash—A 100-year-old recipe combines green beans, corn and bacon. To make succotash nowadays cook frozen green beans according to package directions and drain. Heat a can of whole-kernel corn and drain; add to the green beans with a lump of butter. Serve topped with crisply cooked crumbled bacon.

Old-fashioned Salad Dressing—Vinegar, sugar, salt, pepper and dry mustard are added to sweet cream. Delicious for slaw.

Old-fashioned Potato Salad—Boil potatoes in jackets; drain and shake in saucepan over heat to dry. Peel and dice; while still hot drench with vinegar, salad oil, salt, pepper. Add finely diced onion.

UN Salvage Fleet Suffers Two Setbacks In Clearing Canal

PORT SAID, Egypt (U. N. — The U. N. salvage fleet trying to clear the Suez Canal has suffered two time-consuming setbacks.

In Port Said Harbor, three powerful U. N.-chartered cranes lifted the scuttled Egyptian tug Hercule to the surface. Then a 1½-inch steel cable broke and the heavy tug settled to the bottom again — the third time efforts to raise it have failed.

Forty-three miles south of Port Said, divers found explosives in the wrecked Egyptian dredger Edgar Bonnet. Attempts to raise the hulk were postponed temporarily.

The U. N. fleet hopes to clear a channel through the waterway for shallow-draft vessels by early March and to open it completely by May. Some 50 vessels were sunk in the canal during the British-French invasion.

Washable Snowsuits Help Busy Mothers of Today

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

One of the real boons to winter-time homemaking is the great improvement in snowsuits. Brightly clad little "Eskimos" rolling around in the snow may not appreciate this, but their mothers do—most certainly.

It doesn't require a very long memory to recall the days of heavy, cumbersome leggings and jackets and the struggle to encase a child in same.

Or to remember the pungent odor of a snow-soaked outfit steaming dry on the radiator.

Today's lightweight, insulated suits are not only styled so that the children can put them on by themselves. They're also much simpler to care for and do a better job of keeping a youngster dry and warm.

Most snowsuits, parkas, duffle coats and similar togs designed for little children are washable. But it pays to check before you toss a snowsuit into the machine.

Nylon, the favorite for both outer shell and lining, is completely washable and quick drying.

Other man-made fibers and combed cotton (usually in the close poplin weave) are also washable. Washable linings include quilted nylon, orlon pile, rayon and rayon and a new, feather-weight insulating material, a blend of wool, acetate and dacron.

If the garment is completely washable, pre-treat heavily soiled spots with a well-lathered brush or sponge. Then wash in machine or by hand.

Water-repellent finishes also resist dirt, so it's not much of a task to hand-wash. I also hand-wash the baby's suit, which has a nylon outer shell and a thin wool lining.

To avoid cluttering the bathroom with drip-drying suits, wash the suit at night and let it dry over the kitchen sink.

Use a latch on the cabinet door or a suction cup hook on which to fasten the hanger.

Smooth out seams, hems, collar and hood of the wet garment.

Stuff terry towels or white tissue paper into the hood, arms and legs to help effect smooth, wrinkle-free drying.

You can also dry all-nylon or nylon-and-cotton suits in an automatic dryer. I follow these suggestions from the home economics department at the Iowa State College for this operation.

Dry suits for 10 minutes on warm setting. Turn inside-out, dry for another 10 minutes, then remove garment to finish drying on a hanger.

Knitted wool caps, however, I air-dry, well stuffed with tissue to help retain their shapes.

Wide Choice of Rug Colors Now Available

Area rug forms the focal point of interest in this room setting. Its placement defines the corner arrangement of sofas and its shades of ocean blue and turquoise are repeated in the blue of the linen upholstery. Pillows are of a deeper blue. And the rug's basket-weave design complements the herringbone pattern of the polished wood floor.

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Blossoming like flowers in the field, area rugs in a profusion of colors, patterns and prices are enjoying a heyday among homemakers with decorating plans on their minds.

For one reason, the broad vistas of well-polished wood or hard-surfaced flooring opened up by modern house plans often require the focal point of decorative interest an area rug can supply.

In older homes, the lucky owner who uncovers a beautiful hardwood parquet floor is apt to burnish this bonanza with wax and then look for an area rug to draw attention to the fine craftsmanship and rich gleam of the wood. But choosing such a rug is a somewhat different procedure than selecting a room-size rug or carpet. The request for advice from a young homemaker trying to make the most of a parquetry floor sent me to Edward Fields, one of the country's leading rug stylists, for suggestions.

An area rug, Fields points out, is usually used to "anchor" a sofa-and-table group. Off-center placement is now in vogue to create "living areas."

Where the dining area is a part of the living room, two area rugs are usually used. These, says Fields, need not be the same size or even the same pattern as long as they harmonize in color and style.

Use of an area rug in front of a furniture grouping helps to define the area and give it a feeling of unity, he says.

Whether to pick a plain or patterned design is a matter of personal preference, states the rug stylist.

The choice of colors in the rug is important and they should harmonize with or match those in fabrics and furniture.

A distinctive rug might be made the basis for the decorative scheme if you're planning to buy new draperies and also reupholster the furniture.

Area rugs, although a strong ally of contemporary interiors, are not out of character in traditional settings. As Fields points out, rugs of this type actually originated in the 14th and 15th centuries. One reason for their popularity at that time, was to complement the beautiful floors of those periods.

The size and shape of the room as well as the area one wishes to define governs the size of the rug to choose.

In front of the important group of furniture is naturally the first place to use an area rug.

If you have a corner sofa arrangement, for example, you can measure the floor space in front of it as a clue to how large a rug will be needed. (Too large a rug is apt to look awkward.)

Many interesting new patterns stem from the Orient. Persian patterns, simplified and recolored, and Shol screen designs are two examples.

You'll see daring color combinations, too, such as white on black. This would be overpowering in a large rug, but it adapts well to the smaller sizes of area rugs.

For more traditional settings, patterns suggestive of old, hand-hooked rugs make use of flowers, birds and fruit in their designs.

The person tending the plants will find the smaller frames easier to handle, and breakage problems and replacement costs will be minimized.

Give the box two coats of good exterior paint on their outer surfaces, and the job is finished.

Begin Your Spring Training With Forcing Box Project

By MR. FIX

Distributed by NEA Service

The stirring of sap in the spring-time is as nothing when compared to the frantic scrambling by which most of us greet the vernal season when it arrives — as usual — over night.

If you would be left in peace to pursue your workshop projects—at least until time for heavy digging comes along — it would be wise to ingratiate yourself with the "green thumb" of the family.

And a simple project, results of which will propitiate the goddess of the garden, is the construction of plant-forcing box.

Made of 1-inch lumber, such a box will be heavy enough to stay in position without necessity for anchoring it in place.

The dimensions will be determined by your particular requirements, but for purposes of example sizes are given in accompanying sketch. A box of the size shown will hold quite a few seedlings or cuttings. It will shield them from early spring cold and give them a good start before they take up their all-out battle for survival in the garden.

You'll need the following pieces of lumber: two pieces 1 by 6 inches; each 1 foot in length; one piece 1 by 6 inches, 1 foot, 7-16 inches long; one piece 1 by 3 inches, 1 foot, 7-16 inches long; two 1 by 1 1/4 inches, each 1 foot, 1/4 inch long; two pieces 1 by 1 1/4 inches, each 1 foot, 2 inches in length; one piece 1/4-inch moulding, about 4 feet long.

One piece of glass, 11 1/4 by 13 inches; brads, 4-penny nails, two hinges.

Construct frame for the glass from the 1 by 1 1/4-inch material, using triangular moulding tacked in with brads (see sketch) to hold the glass in place. (Putty can be used instead of the moulding, if sturdiness isn't of prime concern.)

If plants are especially delicate, construct your box to fit the dimensions of a basement window, and leave backboard out of the assembly, fastening the box with a wood rail only.

You can then place the box snug up to the window frame and leave the basement window open. And then, for all practical purposes, you'll have a little greenhouse all set up.

If your plans call for a large forcing box, it's wise to construct the glass frame in two or more independently hinged sections.

The person tending the plants will find the smaller frames easier to handle, and breakage problems and replacement costs will be minimized.

Give the box two coats of good exterior paint on their outer surfaces, and the job is finished.

They Didn't 'Give' At All

Reappraisal of circumstances surrounding the Junior Chamber of Commerce "Operation Swap" over KDRO-TV Sunday night seems timely now that the affair is viewed in retrospect.

Indeed the event may be considered favorably from the standpoint of raising $2,500 for the March of Dimes polio fund. That this amount was obtained speaks well for the Jaycees' organizational ability under the chairmanship of Max Cassing, and the tireless efforts of many young people who stayed with the program until 4:30 in the morning.

The worthy purpose for which the event was staged required contributions of valuable merchandise or certificates from merchants and other individuals. A section of the studio packed high with such gifts was mute evidence of the generosity of the donors.

The public was expected to participate in kind. For an evening of entertainment, people were expected to bid by telephone for the auctioned items in amounts which would indicate their willingness to pay a premium to aid stricken polio victims.

Instead, valuable articles were knocked down at ridiculously low figures, more often than not at half value. The auction turned out to be a bargain night, deluxe for the bidders. On the basis of worth the goods should have brought at least $5,000.

So, a reappraisal of "Operation Swap" indicates it was no swap at all, no swap of dollars for an equal value of merchandise and a little to boot for the polio fund.

Those buyers who got more than value for their dollars and felt a stimulating uplift because they thought they were giving a charitable donation to the polio fund, simply had a phony feeling.

The ones who really contributed to the polio fund were the merchants and individuals who provided the merchandise for the hard-working Jaycees. What little advertising they got out of it was puny compared to the value of their outright donations.

There's a philosophical saying that, "true charity is the desire to be useful to others without thought of recompense."

Under this axiom those who bought bargain merchandise under the impression they were giving something to the polio fund, would hardly qualify as exponents of true charity.

The March of Dimes campaign is still underway for those who feel moved to give an outright cash donation by mailing it to "Polio Fund", Care Postmaster, Sedalia, Missouri.

GALLIPOLIS (Ohio) TRIBUNE: Put And Take. Bank clerks are not heartless, but highly methodical in checking depositors' bank balances. At this season of year with many financial obligations falling due and clamoring for payment, forgetful persons are prone to overdraw their bank accounts and notification by mail or otherwise is a prompt procedure. Such contempts are of more frequent occurrence where two persons operate a joint bank account, especially so when one of the parties concerned fails to make note of checks written and balance adjusted. Be it said to their credit, bank clerks rarely make mistakes, for overdrawn accounts are closely checked and verified before notice is given. Here is instance where the customer is not always right, and a second check will usually reveal error on his side of the fence. Banking procedure is just extension of the childhood game of "put and take." Here the depositor must also put before he can take.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—TV Licenses Getting Steeped In Politics

WASHINGTON—GOP National Chairman Len Hall isn't supposed to meddle in its business, but he has been pressuring the Federal Communications Commission to grant a multimillion dollar TV channel to the Boston Herald and Traveler.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R., Mass.), who also have nothing to do with the FCC, have added their political pressure. It now looks as if the commissioners, mostly Republican appointees, will give in.

This means they will not only overrule the FCC's veteran chief examiner, Col. James Cunningham, but will violate one of the FCC's own rules—namely, to diversify control of public channels of expression.

The Boston Herald and Traveler not only operates the big metropolitan newspaper, but also control Boston's biggest radio station, WHDH. Now the papers are trying to add a TV station, worth an estimated $20,000,000.

In the past, the FCC has usually denied TV licenses to newspapers, especially if they already owned radio stations. Lately, however, powerful Republican papers have had amazing success with their applications. The Herald and Traveler, of course, are both Republican.

Colonel Cunningham, following FCC policy, ruled against the Herald and Traveler. His report favored two TV companies, greater Boston TV and Massachusetts Bay Telecasters in which cartoonist Al Capp of Li'l Abner fame is a stockholder. A veteran career employee, Cunningham has been with the FCC far longer than any of the commissioners who are about to overrule him.

FCC Takes Orders After the Herald and Traveler lost out on merits, Publisher Robert Choate started pulling political strings. He came to Washington to appeal his case. He did not appeal before the FCC, but to Chairman Hall, Secretary Weeks, and Senator Saltonstall.

These three powerful Republicans have no legal voice on TV licenses. Under the law, the FCC is supposed to be an independent agency free of pressure from the White House. Its decisions mean millions of dollars to the applicant so favored. That is why Congress established a quasi-judicial agency independent of the White House.

Nevertheless, it is no secret around Washington that the present commissioners are the most politically motivated in the FCC's history. They take their orders from Republican high-ups to such an extent that they have made a farce of the hearing system. Most of the

Auto Inspection?

Is compulsory automobile inspection important in cutting down accidents on American highways?

That question will confront many a state legislature this year. The American Automobile Association reports that approximately one-third of the states already have a compulsory motor vehicle inspection once or twice annually. Significantly, the AAA does not take an official position on compulsory inspection.

Maryland is a good example of the pros and cons. Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin believes the legislature favors such check-ups. But along comes the most influential newspaper in his state, The Baltimore Sun, which reports that "98.3 per cent of automobiles involved in fatal accidents were apparently in good condition." The Sun would spend enforcement money on the "key factor in accidents, driving and the driver."

Then there is the risk of the unscrupulous garage operator who might either give a sticker to a friend after a superficial inspection or exploit the driver for non-existent mechanical ailments.

Inspection is not required in Missouri.

juicy TV licenses are now handed out as political plums. In fact, the FCC has so abandoned its legal duty of upholding the public welfare that Congressmen are talking seriously of abolishing the agency.

NOTE—Senator Saltonstall reluctantly helped the Herald and Traveler in their application for channel 5. The strong pressure came from Chairman Hall and Sinclair Weeks.

Adlai and Joe Louis In Washington recently, Adlai Stevenson was being ribbed about his "future plans" by Charles Kress, a New York Republican.

"One more campaign wouldn't hurt you, governor," said Kress. "You look fit enough to take on Joe Louis."

"From all I hear, Joe Louis is through with championship bouts. So am I," replied Adlai.

A Worse Record

There are small consolations when a country like the United States finds it has killed 40,000 people on its highways, as was the case in 1956. But one of those minor comforts now comes from West Germany.

Figures from the capital at Bonn disclose that West German motorists last year killed more than 12,000 persons.

West Germany has less than one tenth the number of automobiles found in America. If the same fatality rate recorded there were applied to the United States, the death toll here would have been 130,000 in 1956.

Evidently there is no record of a higher fatality rate anywhere in the world than that in West Germany.

Speed, always a controversial ingredient in fatal accidents, seems to be one key factor in the German record. It is said that 70 miles an hour is a common performance on German superhighways for any vehicle larger than a motorbike. A speeder is a "90-mile-an-hour man."

We can hardly be happy over what happens on our roads. But at least we know we are not the worst.

The Dictator's Path

Egypt's President Nasser continues down the characteristic path of the ambitious dictator.

In new decrees he has ordered the conversion to Egyptian management and ownership of all foreign banks, trading companies and insurance firms.

As carried out, these decrees resulted in the immediate takeover of "enemy properties" owned by the British and French. Others get five years to switch to Egyptian control.

It would be hard to argue that, aside from employing whatever additional Egyptian executive talent that may be looking for work, this move by Nasser does his country much good. Returns from the seizure will probably prove quite modest in comparison with the loss: the almost certain driving away of further Western investment in Egypt.

But Nasser is playing for political stakes, and cares only incidentally about his country's economic fortunes. He wants to be boss and chief spokesman of the Arab world.

To gain and hold such a position, he must at the minimum twist the foreigner's tail at regular intervals.

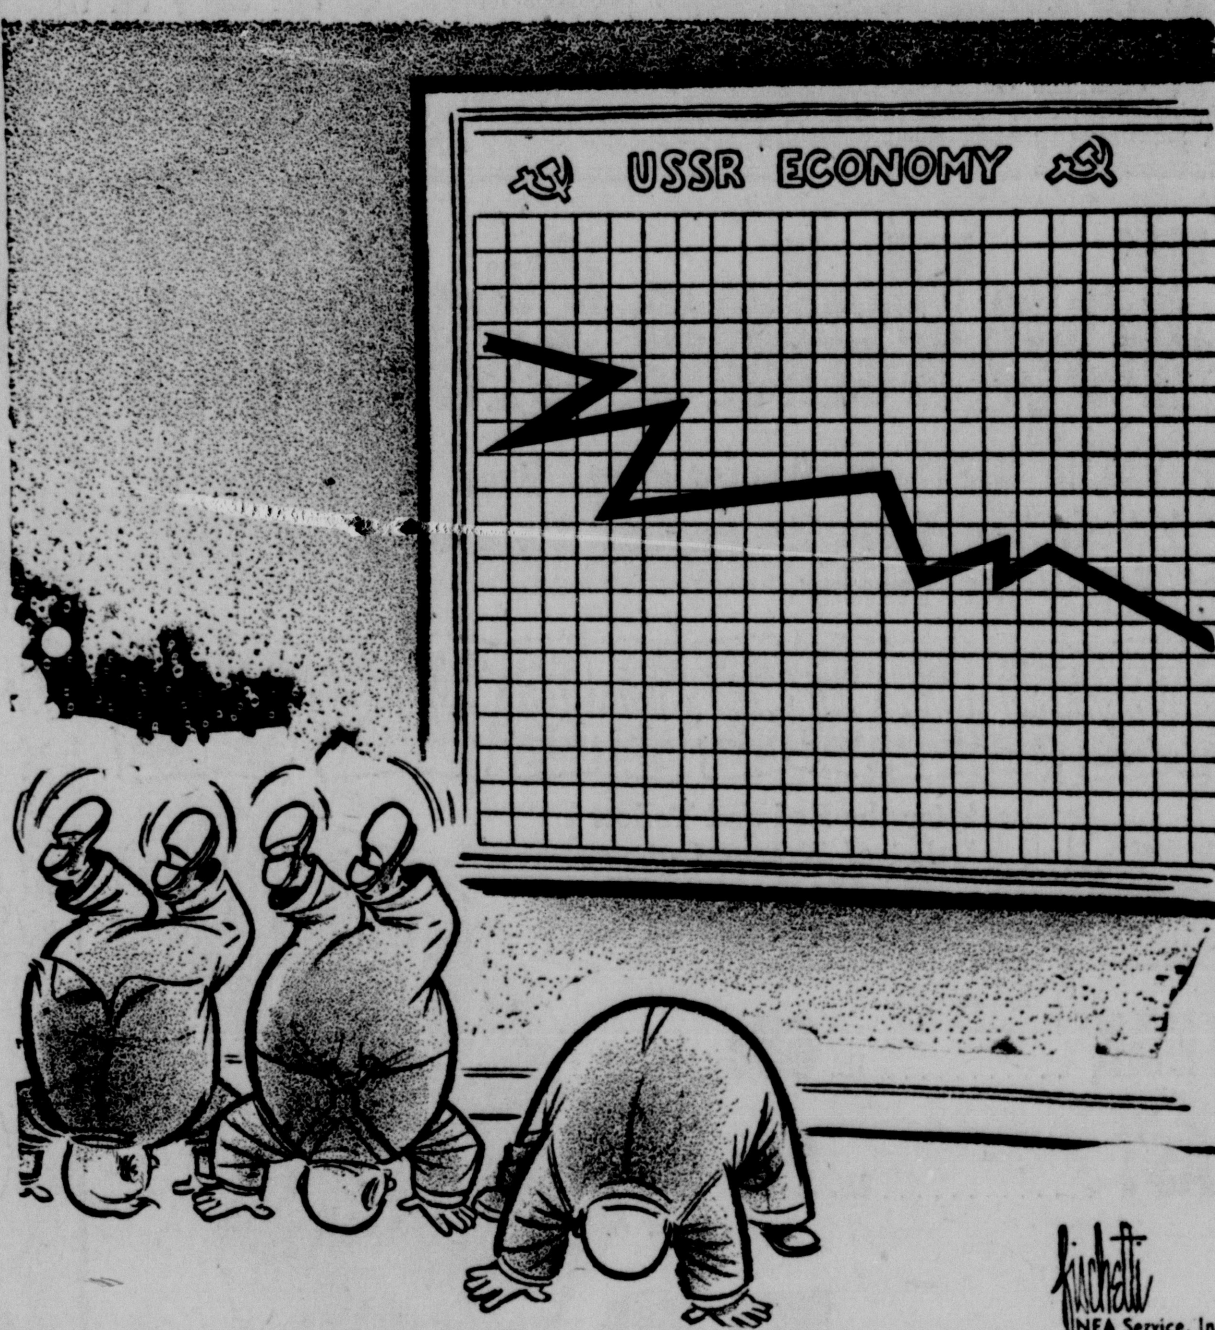

His nationalization decrees represent his latest twist. We can be sure there will be others to follow.

Ike-Humphrey Budget Talk Is Dizzying

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—You can get dizzy these brisk January days just trying to follow President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey when they talk of cutting the budget and reducing taxes on small business.

Last August Eisenhower's special committee for helping small business made 14 recommendations, including tax cuts that would amount to 600 million dollars a year.

During the presidential campaign Eisenhower said, "I shall call for further help to small business with some dozen specific recommendations for action—including special tax measures."

But he was very vague when he sent his economic message to Congress yesterday, contenting himself with saying any tax cut for small business should "involve only a minimum loss of revenue" to the government.

Last week at a news conference Secretary Humphrey brushed past the Cabinet committee's recommendations for 600 million dollars in tax cuts. He said he opposed any substantial loss in revenue but added he'd be glad to see small business get a cut of 20 to 30 million dollars.

It was over the budget itself that a peculiar fog descended. This past year, as every year, the heads of government agencies worked for months figuring out their spending estimates which would go into Eisenhower's total budget.

They're supposed to cut to the bone. To see that they do, the Budget Bureau goes over their figures, looking for places to use the ax. Humphrey at his news conference praised the agency heads for their zeal. And he said:

"I think the budget as now drawn has been prepared with the very greatest care and I think it is the best that we can possibly do right now. I don't think there is anything in sight that can be done better than is now proposed in this budget."

Yet a few minutes later he was saying spending must come down—he had said the same thing in a carefully prepared statement at the beginning of the conference—and then volunteered this information:

"I think there are a lot of places in this budget that can be cut." Reporters asked him where. He wouldn't say. And he refused to say where again yesterday when he appeared before a House Appropriations Committee whose job is to determine how much shall be spent.

This budget of almost 72 billion dollars was the highest Eisenhower had submitted to Congress in his four years and higher than any peacetime budget ever offered by former President Truman. Why was it so high?

Humphrey said it has just been "creeping up on us" because everybody has been looking to the government for more and more.

Yesterday at his own news conference Eisenhower likewise said spending must be kept down. Then, however, unlike Humphrey who said the trouble started with the public which wanted more from the government and went on up to government officials, Eisenhower said:

"As long as the American people demand and, in my opinion deserve, the kind of services that this budget provides, we have got to spend this kind of money." But if Congress can cut the budget, Eisenhower said, it ought to.

That's hardly news, since it's Congress' job. It would seem, from all this, that the White House isn't going to provide leadership in cutting the budget, or fighting for what it asked, and that if small business gets any sizable tax relief it will have to look to Congress, not to the administration.

Blood Type Identification Vital Before Transfusions

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

There is an immense amount of confusion about blood groups and what they mean. This is not at all astonishing since the subject is a complicated one: there are many different blood groups and their names are meaningless.

One cannot tell by looking at a person what his blood type is. Neither does the particular blood type or group which a person carries have any direct bearing on general health or chances for a long life.

All of us have blood belonging to one of four major classifications: O, A, B and AB. The O and A types are the more common among us. Forty-five per cent of us have O blood and 43 per cent A blood. This leaves only eight out of 100 people with B blood and four of 100 who have AB blood.

These blood groups are of importance primarily when we are to receive or give a blood transfusion. The reason is that if a person with one of these types of blood receives blood from a person with a different type it may cause a serious reaction, commonly known as a "transfusion reaction." Anyone who is to receive a transfusion should have his or her blood type determined before he gets it. The donor's blood type should also be known.

It is an interesting fact that group O blood does not usually produce harm in a transfusion, even when given to a person with a different blood group. For this reason a person with O-type blood is sometimes called a "universal donor."

In spite of this situation it is usually considered good practice, even when the blood types of both the receiver of blood and the giver are known, to do some direct cross-matching before the transfusion in order to make doubly sure of avoiding a hazardous reaction.

The other blood type which is of particular interest today apparently has no relation to the groups just mentioned, but is commonly referred to as the Rh factor. This was discovered much later than the four groups mentioned. With concentrated study, it has been found to consist of several sub-types. It is important both from the standpoint of blood transfusion and from the standpoint of childbirth, and therefore it is commonly tested for today.

Greatly Exaggerated KERRVILLE, Tex., (AP)—Attorney Jim Nugent, 34, recently squelched reports of his death.

In the space of a few hours, someone called the police, a funeral home and his aunt to ask if Nugent was dead or not. The source of the rumors was never revealed.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

That was a terrible crash you saw the other day. The cars involved were smashed beyond repair. Even if they could be fixed up they would scarcely be safe to ride in. The frames would be sprung. There might be hidden cracks which would break unexpectedly.

Yes, there were some people injured in the crash. They may discover internal injuries later. The shock may last a long time.

The cause? No one knows. Speed was involved. Carelessness is evident. Human error was part of the picture.

So it is with sin. The results are disastrous. The effects are long lasting. Innocent people are hurt. Human error and carelessness are involved. Temptation caused the sin or was it that we gave in?

Let us put on a campaign to diminish sin and save souls in the same way that we put on campaigns for safe driving.

Inaugural Excitement—

Republicans Take Time Out to Discuss Future

By Esther Van Wagoner Tutty

Of Our Washington Bureau WASHINGTON—During the inaugural excitement, Republicans found time to talk about winning the next election while celebrating the Eisenhower victory.

Everyone seemed to have an answer, but not the same one, to the question: Who will get Len Hall's job?

Some GOPs from the East favor H. Meade Alcorn, Jr., GOP National Committeeman from Connecticut, who finally got the job.

Others said, "We need a chairman from the West where Ike didn't do so well," and they mentioned former Senator Harry Darby, GOP National Committeeman for Kansas. Others mentioned for the top job in the Republican National Committee were Ray Bliss, GOP State Chairman of Ohio and former Gov. Howard Pyle of Arizona, now a presidential aide.

Retiring chairman Leonard Hall himself was asked "Where are you going?" meaning what appointment do you want now that it's settled you will not be the next Postmaster General as Arthur Summerfield has announced he has been asked to stay on.

Then there was a lot of strategy talk. Congressman Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.) warned some Republican women leaders that the Republican party has been too long under the "warm glow" of President Eisenhower's name and must now be sold as a party.

This chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee said, "We liked the American people and neglected to include the Republican party label."

His counterpart in the Senate, Andrew Schoppel of Kansas had another warning that money would not be as easy to come by as when you have a popular presidential candidate and he said what others said at the various inaugural parties that "the party must win the Congress in 1958 if it is to have any chance of retaining the presidency in 1960."

Several Republican Governors agreed with Leonard Hall that "the real hunting ground of the Republican party is in the South" but that the organization there must be built up.

Women politicians in the party also were talking. They want better men nominated and Miss Bertha Adkins, assistant chairman of the National Committee, said this would take more organization effort within the party.

Managing Gate-Crashers Easy for These Mothers

Teen-age parties in one southern city were getting to be rather hectic affairs—especially for the parents of the teen-ager giving the party—until a group of mothers came up with a solution that seems to have the situation under control. When the parties were given in individual homes, there were always the gate-crashers parents were reluctant to refuse admittance.

And the gate-crashers were invariably rowdy, not above walking off with records, tossing food around, etc. If they were asked to leave, they made a nuisance of themselves by driving around annoying the neighbors with screeching tires and tooting horns.

What the mothers did was organize a dancing club for teen-agers and their invitation list carefully left out all known trouble-makers among the teen-agers.

They made a list of rules for the dances and made it quite clear in their invitations that any member breaking any of the rules would be dropped immediately.

They they set about to organize parties that would be fun, but at which teen-agers were to come appropriately dressed for a party and were to behave like young ladies and young gentlemen.

The parties are a big success. The kids actually seem to enjoy being made to toe the mark on a few important points. With a committee of chaperones instead of two parents trying to manage a party alone, there is no trouble from gate-crashers.

An interesting sidelight on the experiment is that those who belong to the dancing club now look with pity instead of a certain amount of envy on the "tough" kids who are excluded.

As long as they were getting by with party-crashing and trouble-making they were heroes of a sort. But now they are outsiders and that's a different story.

What worked for one group of parents might work for another. So try the idea if your teen-agers parties are getting out of hand.

Hoyt and Gladys Holley— Benton County Couple Will Receive Agriculture Award

A Benton County couple, Hoyt and Gladys Holley, will be honored Saturday by the Skelly Oil Co. for their part in the agricultural advancement of Missouri. The couple will receive the W. G. Skelly Agricultural Achievement Award, including a $100 United States Savings Bond, a gold lapel pin and the achievement award scroll.

The presentation will be made at a community breakfast where neighbors and friends will join them. During the breakfast the family will hear the oil company's NBC program, "This Farming Business," originating from Chicago and featuring Lloyd Burlingham and Alex Dreier.

In partnership with his brother, George, Hoyt owns 933 acres of Benton County land, just ten minutes from the western end of the Lake of the Ozarks. George Holley, superintendent of schools at Maysville, participates in the general planning of the farm, but actual operation is in the hands of Hoyt and his family.

The family consists of five children. The eldest, Shirley, is now Mrs. Shirley Scott of Independence, Mo. The other children, Allen, 17; Kenneth, 14; Betty, 11, and Ruby, 9, are still at home.

The most productive part of the 933 Holley acres lies in the Pomme de Terre river bottom. Here, despite the late drought years, the Holleys have averaged 80 bushels of corn on 152 acres.

Last year Hoyt Holley had 116 acres in corn and 36 in sudan for silage. Other 1956 crops included 30 acres of oats for grain, 27 acres of hay, 14 acres of wheat and 81 in pasture rotation.

Livestock forms an important part of the production of the Holley farm. Ten brood sows produce two litters a year. Durocs that consistently top the market, these porkers are given top care for maximum survival, including farrowing pens and heat lamps.

The Holleys keep a herd of 70 grade Hereford cows, selected on the basis of ability to turn grass and grain into a maximum tonnage of beef. Half of the calves go to market as low to high choice, the others are sold through the Benton County Producers' Association in a cooperative feeder calf sale. The Holleys have installed a chute feeding arrangement that makes it possible to feed silage to the cow herd in 30 minutes.

Careful attention is given to the soil, too. In 1955 a total of 8 1/4 tons of rock phosphate and 40 tons of lime went on the pastures. Last year a 1,500 square yard stock pond was constructed and 15 acres of improved pasture land seeded.

Despite their varied farm operation, the Holleys find plenty of time for community activities. All the Holley children are 4-H'ers. Shirley, the married daughter who now lives in Independence, was a state 4-H winner in foods

Lists Qualifications For An Ideal Boss

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles chapter of the National Secretaries Assn. says these are some qualifications of the ideal boss:

Turn your back when she comes in late and think of all the hours she has worked overtime.

When dictating, don't shave, have your hair cut, shoes shined, chew gum or smoke a cigar.

And above all, take her to lunch once in a while—she can't afford to eat out on her salary.

was first opened last October in a speech by President Eisenhower. Since then, there has been some disappointment among Poles that progress has not been faster.
